

How does the Regional Transportation Forecasting Model Work?

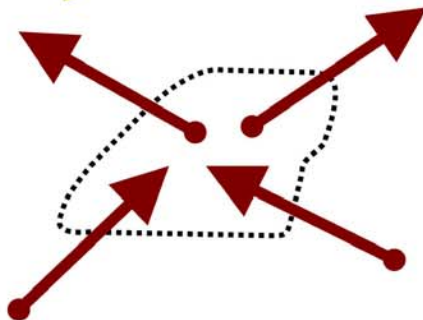

Defining the Terms

Local, Regional, and Through

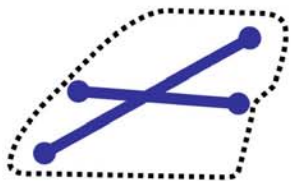

Through Trips

Movement of people and goods between locations outside the project area but that pass through the project area

Regional Trips

Movement of people and goods between locations outside the project area and locations within the project area

Local or Project Area Trips

Movement of people and goods between locations within the project area